This thritieth edition of the Northern Light is dedicated to the churches of the Minnesota Baptist Association. Throughout the past thirty years, the history of the college has been intertwined with that of the Minnesota Baptist Association (formerly the Minnesota Baptist churches selects the trustees for Pillsbury's board each year at their annual meeting. These churches support Pillsbury both financially and through sending us students who feel called into full time Christian service. Each year the college faculty and board of trustees sign the Minnesota Baptist Association doctrinal statement, insuring a strong Biblicist position.

Pillsbury, in turn, supports and benefits the churches of the Minnesota Baptist Association. Each week, Pillsbury students serve in extension ministries in Minnesota churches. Many of the MBA churches have Pillsbury graduates as pastors or active lay leaders. Pillsbury's continued local church emphasis is due in large part to the cooperation of the churches of the Minnesota Baptist Association.

The strong bonds that exist between Pillsbury Baptist Bible College and the Minnesota Baptist Association can be traced back for over a century to when the original Pillsbury charter was written in 1854. For the continued vision and support provided by the churches of the Minnesota Baptist Association we gratefuly dedicate to them this 1987 edition of the Northern Light.

Thirty Years of Training

Original Academy Building — Built in 1877

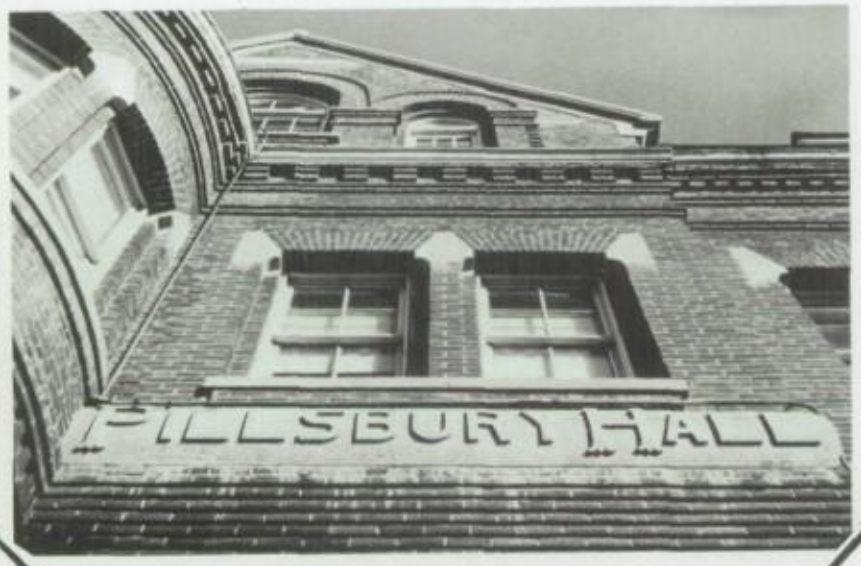
Before Minnesota was even a state, Timothy R. Cressey, an early Baptist missionary, wrote the charter in 1854 for an institution of learning that was recognized by the Minnesota Territory as Minnesota Central University. This school was the direct predecessor of what is now known as Pillsbury Baptist Bible College. Cressey had intended for the school to be closely tied to the Minnesota Baptist churches and their associations. Little is known of this early school, started in Hastings, Minnesota, as most of the records were destroyed by fire. However, it is known that the venture wasn't a financial success and when Minnesota Central University closed its doors only a small sum was turned over to the treasurer of the finance committee of the Minnesota Baptist Association.

Ground was first broken July 8, 1877 in Owatonna and a school to be known as Minnesota Academy soon became a reality. In 1878 an act was passed by the legislature of Minnesota to amend the act creating Minnesota Central University, and to establish an institution of learning called Minnesota Academy.

Thus began Minnesota Academy both physically and financially. Though it was not very sound financially, it was nearly all paid for, and it had a financial committee behind it that had the necessary determination and crusading spirit to raise the money necessary for its operation and endowment.

By 1883 pledges to the endowment fund had reached the sum of $10,101.50. At the annual Baptist Convention that year $10,000.00 was raised from among the convention members.

With the interest from these contributions and the help of churches and friends, Minnesota Academy kept on with its work until the 1885 meeting of the State Baptist Convention. At this time Minnesota Academy not only acquired a new fortune, but acquired a new name as well. The Honorable George A. Pillsbury offered to erect a ladies' boarding hall if the convention would add to the endowment the sum of $25,000. This amount was soon pledged and the building, Pillsbury Hall, costing $27,000, was erected and dedicated October 26, 1886. Minnesota Academy now, unofficially, became Pillsbury Academy due to a resolution passed by an earlier convention of the Baptist Association which stated that the first donor of $20,000 should have the privilege of giving a name to the institution. This name became official when, on February 5, 1887, the legislature passed an act changing the name of Minnesota Academy to Pillsbury Academy. The Hon. George A. Pillsbury continued to be the chief benefactor of Pillsbury Academy. In 1889 he erected and donated the Old Main Administration Building. Between 1892 and 1894 his continuous generosity made possible the music building, the former Kelly Hall dormitory (which burned down in 1939), the Armory (the current dining hall), and the Power Plant. As though this was not enough, his will left to the Academy an endowment of $250,000.



Thus, we see that at the beginning of the twentieth century, Pillsbury's future was secure, having become an institution having assets in excess of $450,000. The current Kelly Hall was erected in 1903, Jeft's Hall (the library) in 1911 and the Lindsay Gymnasium in 1914.

Pillsbury remained a coeducational academy until 1920 when it became a military school for boys only. During those years, the influence of the Minnesota Baptist Association gradually waned and theological liberalism became firmly entrenched. The main issue was whether the Minnesota Baptist

Soldiers for Jesus Christ

Convention had the sole right to elect members to the board of trustees. The liberals in control of the school tried to elect a self-perpetuating board without input from the Baptist Convention, contrary to the school's original charter.

During the early 1950's the situation gradually worsened until a court case determined that the Minnesota Baptist Convention was, in fact, the sole owner of Pillsbury.

Pillsbury became a Biblical Arts College in 1957 after Northwestern Schools discontinued their Bible College following the 1955-56 school year. On September 4, 1957, registration figures showed that 106 students entered the college for its first year as a Bible College.

Dr. Richard V. Clearwaters became the founder and first president of Pillsbury Baptist Bible College. He helped develop the philosophy, theology, and separatistic stand of Pillsbury College during those early years.

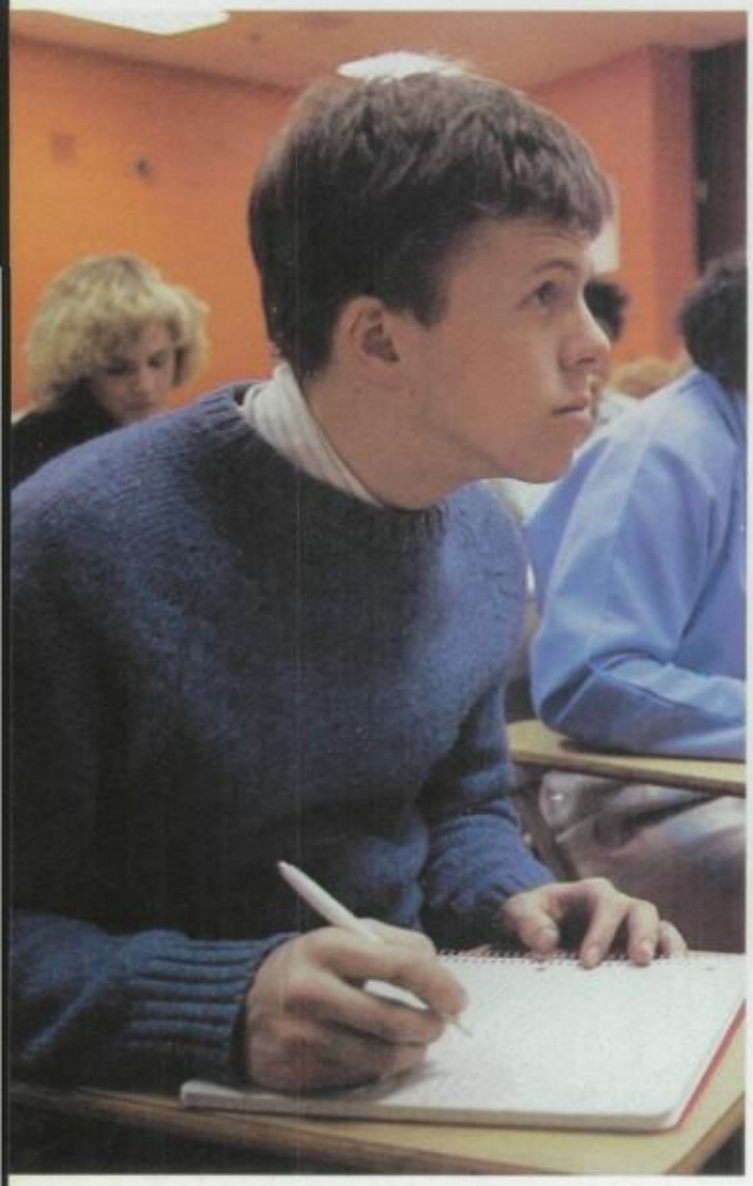
Dr. Monroe Parker became the first resident president of Pillsbury College in February 1958. On June 2, 1958 the first commencement was held with eight seniors receiving the Bachelor of Arts degree. Dr. Parker established many of the policies and procedures of Pillsbury while helping to increase the enrollment from 106 to 550 before he resigned in 1965. He instituted Masters programs in Missions and Christian Education during his administration. As an evangelist, Dr. Parker was always interested in "keeping the chapel platform hot" and began the tradition of beginning each semester with evangelistic meetings.

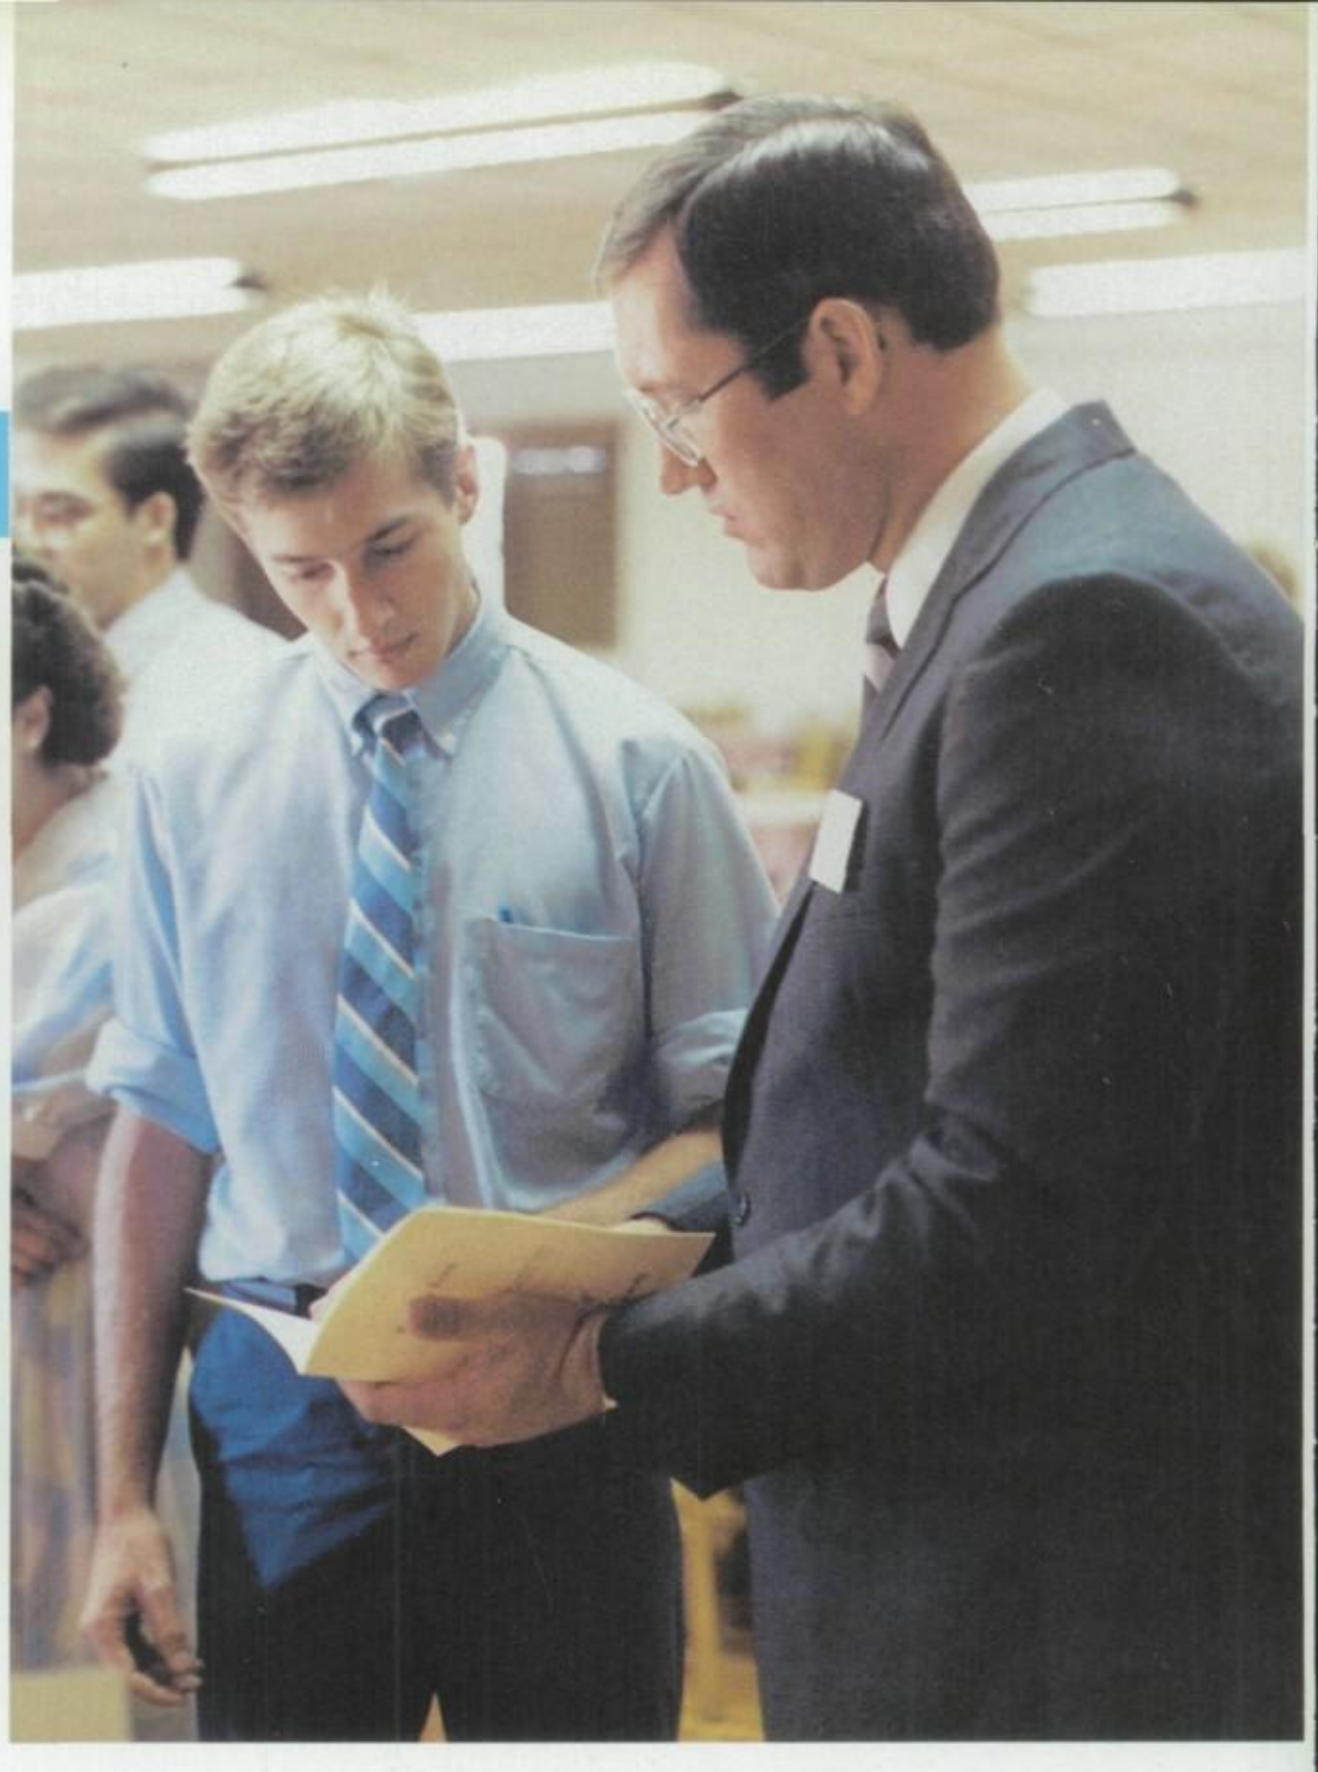
Clearwaters Hall was dedicated in 1961. Early in the life of the college, literary societies were organized to provide fellowship and activities for the school. These societies were named after men and women of outstanding Christian character.

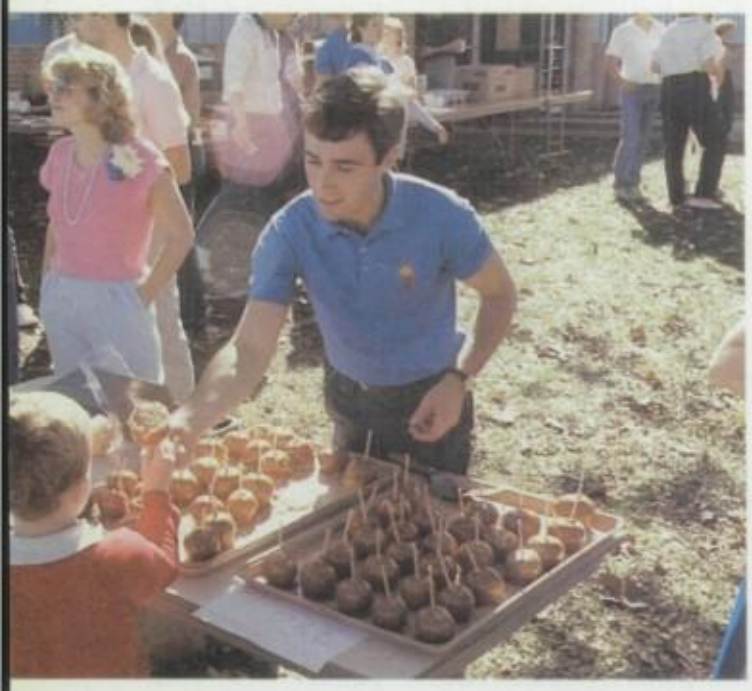
In the fall of 1965, Dr. B. Myron Cedarholm began his presidency. Dr. Cedarholm had been the General Director of the Conservative Baptist Association. He later withdrew from this group because their stand softened. He was a great promoter. He continued to build the enrollment until by 1966 Pillsbury was the second largest Bible College in the nation. Cedarholm resigned in 1968 and was succeeded as president by Dr. Clearwaters. In 1966, Mrs. Harriet Bratrud, friend of the college, outstanding Christian leader and board member, was awarded a doctorate in Humanities, becoming the first woman to receive an honorary degree from Pillsbury.

Dr. Joseph A. Rammel began his presidency in 1975, serving as Executive Vice-president from 1970-1975. He has made significant contributions to the college in the area of curriculum development. Under Dr. Rammel's presidency, the Bible major at Pillsbury College changed from a 30 hour to a 36 hour requirement. Each of the faculty members was required to have the equivalent of the Pillsbury Bible major. Dr. Rammel also expanded the curriculum in other areas, including the addition of a teacher education program. During his administration a variety of campus improvement projects were instituted, including the new Pillsbury Hall classroom building, the tuckpointing of Old Main, the remodeling of the library, the addition of the KRPC radio studios, and a variety of other major renovation projects. He implemented the requirement that all Pillsbury students had to be involved in extension ministries in local churches for at least four semesters during their college careers. Dr. Rammel resigned January 1, 1987 after nearly 17 years of service.

The Lord willing, Pillsbury will continue to train soldiers for Jesus Christ as they have for the past three decades.







Chosen to be a Soldier

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

Ephesians 6:10, 11

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

Ephesians 6:12, 13

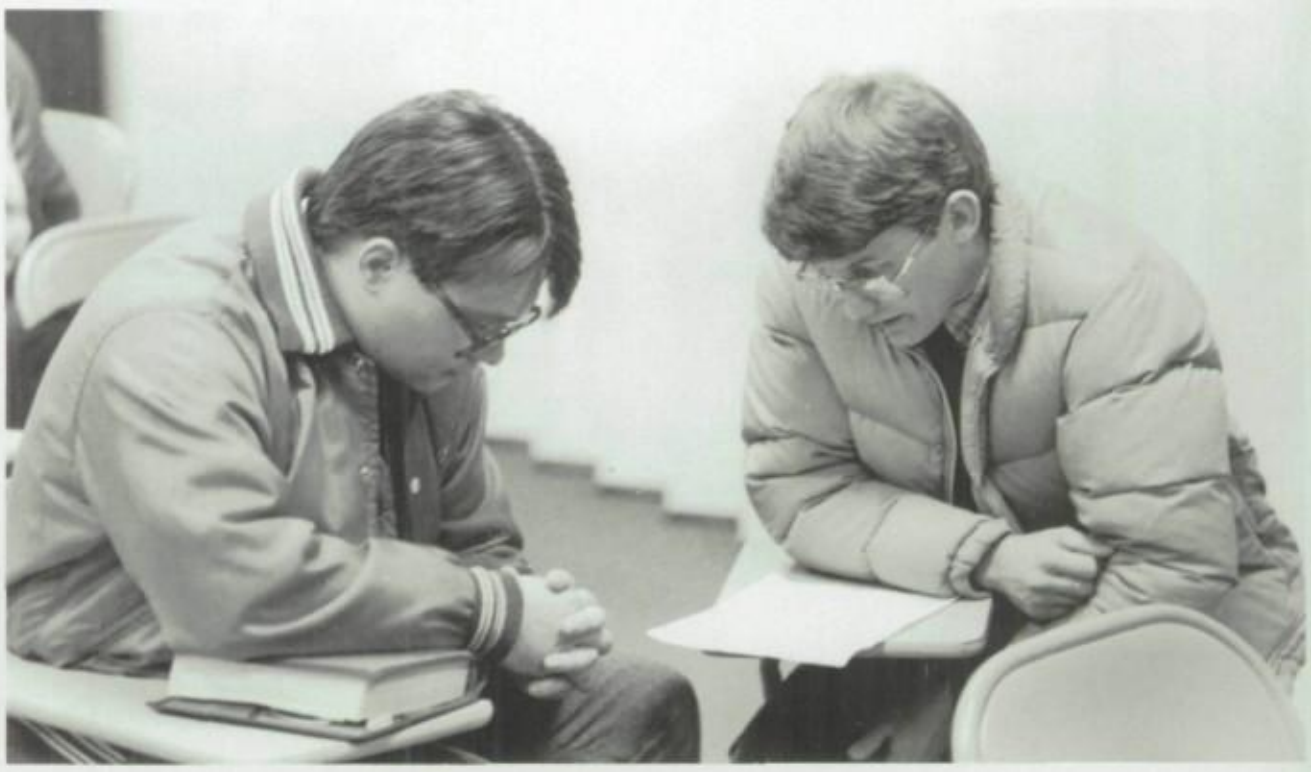
Training to Serve . . .

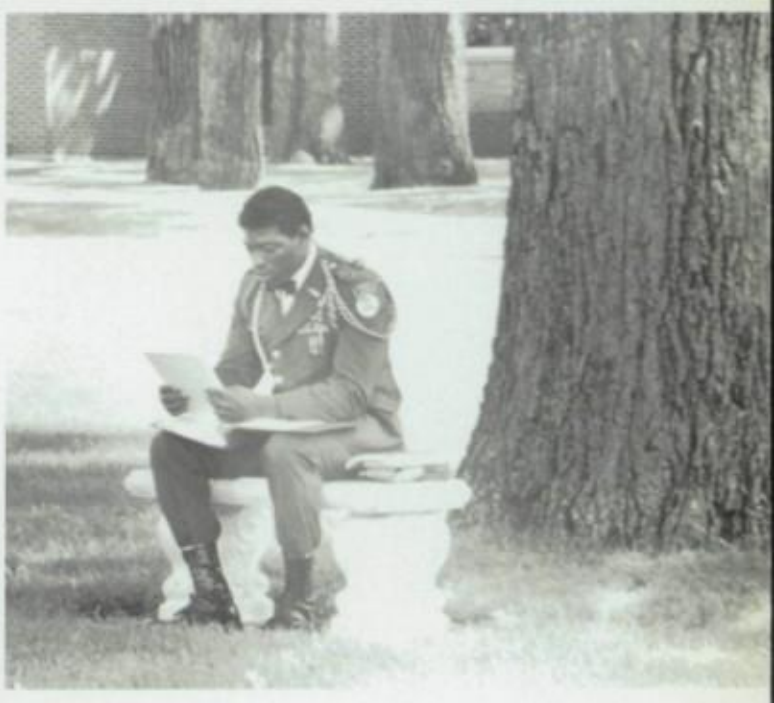
Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness: And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

Ephesians 6:14, 15

Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

Ephesians 6:16, 17

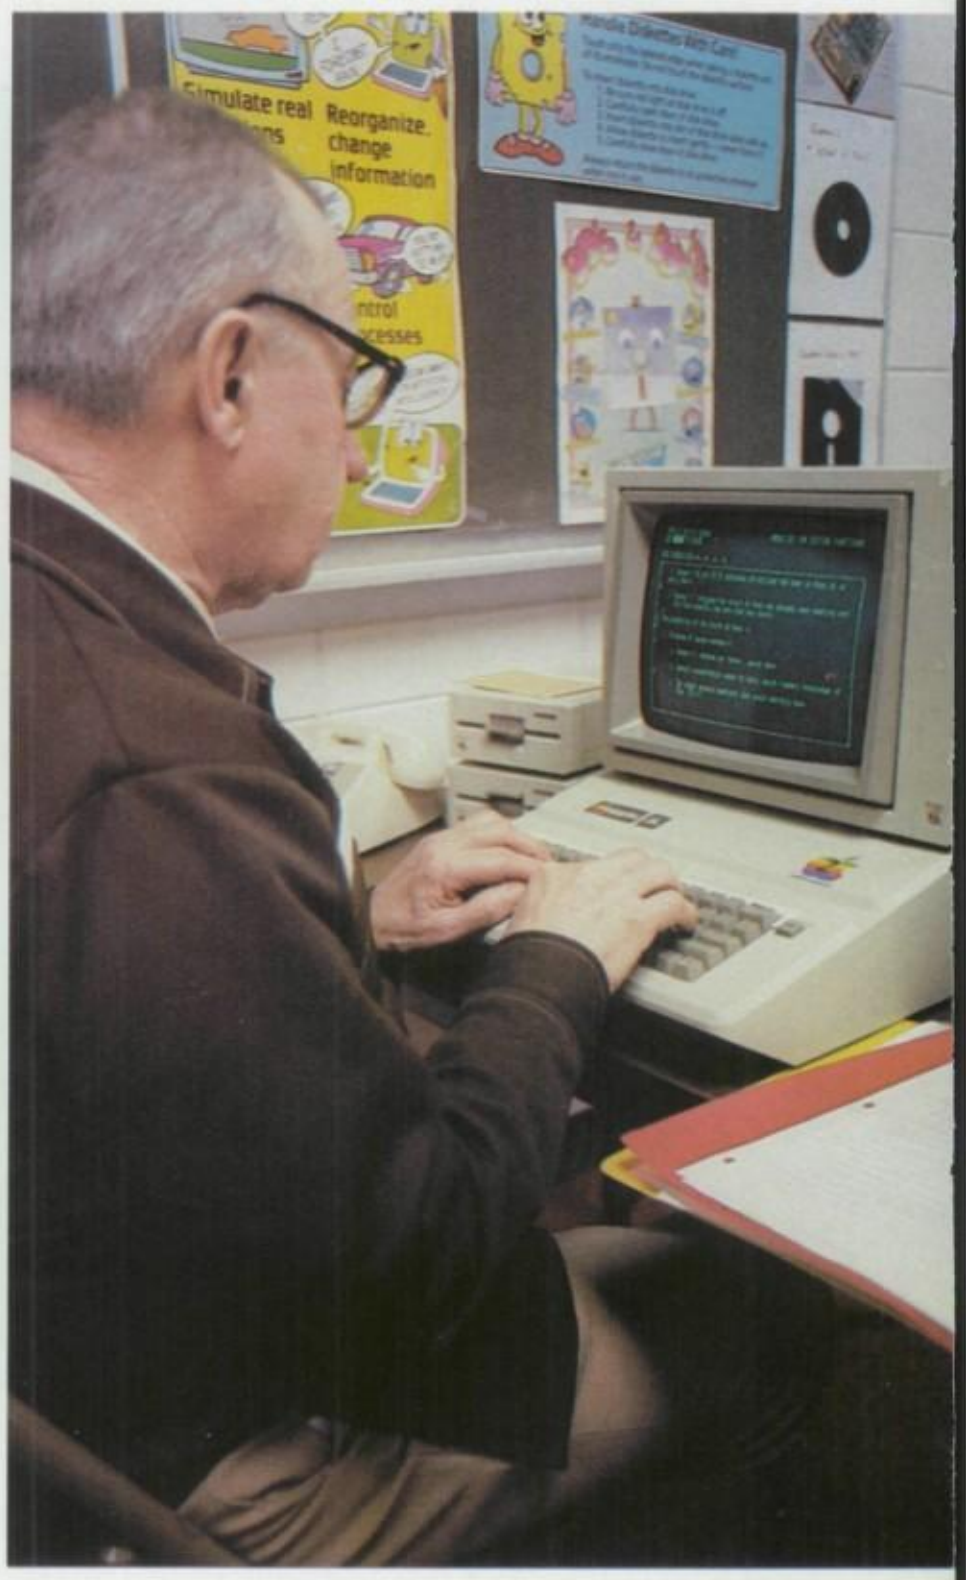




. . . In a Spiritual Battle

Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints.

Ephesians 6:18



No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

STUDENT LIFE

Old Main was erected in 1889 and was originally known as the Academy Building. It was a gift of the late Honorable George A. Pillsbury. The building's tower is the highest point in Owatonna. Kerux auditorium, home to Pillsbury's daily chapel services, is located on the second floor. During this school year, five campus buildings were added to the National Register of Historic Buildings.

Student Body Officers

Tim Graham, Tim Oynes, Maria Moschovis, Paul Larson, Tami Vehrs, Scott Whitehead, Steve Nichols, Dave Shaleen.

The enjoyable Pirate of the Sea activity was just one of the many functions planned by this year's student body officers.

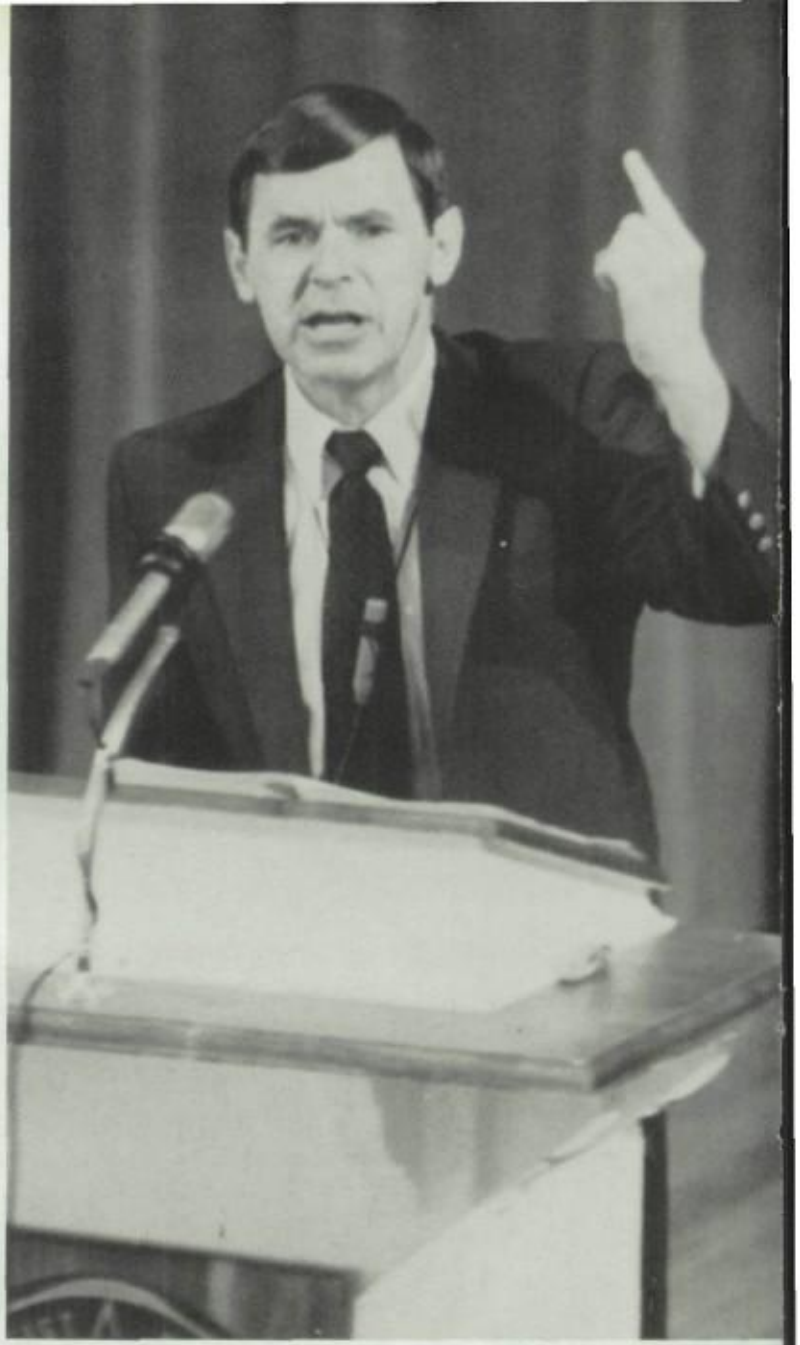
The excited anticipation of seeing old friends and meeting new ones filled the air as students returned to campus. Boxes and bundles were hauled into the dormitories (sometimes with a little help from dad!). Then students registered, bought books, and classes began. It was all part of the first week at Pillsbury. Saturday evening the student body hosted a reception to welcome the new freshmen. Mr. Miller was the host for "Freshman Trivia," a spoof of new students' knowledge of Pillsbury life.

Evangelist Ron Comfort Challenges Students



Evangelist Ron Comfort began the school year with dynamic preaching from God's Word. A tradition which began during Dr. Monroe Parker's administration of beginning each semester with evangelistic meetings continued during this thirtieth anniversary year. There were several decisions including some for salvation as students purposed to live for God.

Academy Grads Relive Military Memories

During this thirtieth anniversary year, Pillsbury hosted an unprecedented event — the first Pillsbury Academy reunion. Before Pillsbury became a Bible College in 1957, the campus had served as a co-educational academy and subsequently as a military academy. When fundamentalist Baptists regained control in 1957, the military academy closed. Of course, a military academy holds precious its many years of tradition, so there was great regret when the announcement was made that the school as they had known it was to close. Several academy graduates who were still living in Owatonna, particularly John Alexander of the Alexander Lumber Company, recently approached the college administration with the idea of hosting a reunion for former Academy students.

Plans were made and invitations were issued to former students around the world to be our special guests during the Harvest Home weekend. In addition to attending the concert on Friday evening, the Academy grads had a special banquet in Jefts Hall and other events at several Owatonna locations. Most of these individuals had not been on campus for over thirty years. They seemed thrilled to see that the campus had been preserved, as well as their history in our archive collection. Mr. Randy Miller brought the entire archives collection downstairs in Jefts Hall for them to see the old uniforms and other memorabilia.

Pillsbury's current library had been the Academy dining hall and so two current students, Jim Javner and Mitch Schrauner dressed in actual Academy uniforms and blew the call to begin the banquet. The visitors marched into the "mess hall," bringing back long forgotten memories. Dr. Rammel addressed the group before hurrying off to the alumni meeting that took place simultaneously that evening. Mrs. Jan Refsell carefully coordinated all of the plans that needed to be made to insure that the event went smoothly. A special guest of honor for the evening was former soldier of fortune, Hilaire duBerrier. DuBerrier attended but never graduated from the Academy. Because he had distinguished himself by serving his country around the world and by even being a prisoner of war, his fellow classmates awarded him an honorary diploma and he addressed them as their special speaker.

Although the rifles and uniforms have long been relegated to the back shelves of history, the Academy graduates could plainly see that Pillsbury continues training soldiers — soldiers for the Lord.

30th ANNIVERSARY ALUMNI BANQUET
THREE DECADES OF DISTINCTION

Three Decades of Graduates Converge on Campus

Thirty years of Bible College history means literally hundreds of graduates faithfully serving the Lord around the world. Each year in conjunction with the Harvest Home activities, the alumni hold a special weekend for our former students to return to their alma mater for great fellowship and activities. Friday morning the alumni were totally in charge of the chapel service. An alumni choir presented special music and alumnus Paul Fosmark preached the Word. An alumni luncheon followed.

That afternoon, organized tennis and golf matches pitted athletes against each other in some less strenuous sports. Hors d'oeuvres were served by Mrs. Whitley and the home economics ladies later in the afternoon at a special reception in the guest house. That evening, former Pillsbury president Dr. Monroe Parker spoke after an excellent concert by our Pillsbury music groups. Three alumni were awarded citations for their outstanding ministries. Pastor Chuck Surrett and Dennis Fitzgerald were commended for their pastoral leadership, while Missionary Bill Kettlewell was cited for his work in missions.

A record-breaking crowd then assembled at the Grace Baptist Church for the annual alumni banquet. One hundred seventy-two people filled the decorated gymnasium to enjoy a delicious dinner. A special multi-media presentation of The A-Team: None of the Same showed how the alumni always come through to save the day. Emcee Wayne Muri provided humorous commentary for the evening's events and awarded trophies for the athletic competitions. Former presidents, Dr. R. V. Clearwaters and Dr. Monroe Parker were on hand and spoke briefly about their recollections of days gone by. Dr. Rammel also spoke, sharing his prospects for Pillsbury's future.

Saturday morning found quite a group assembled for the Fun Run that the alumni sponsored. The course expanded to five kilometers this year and Pastor Larry Hinkel was this year's winner.

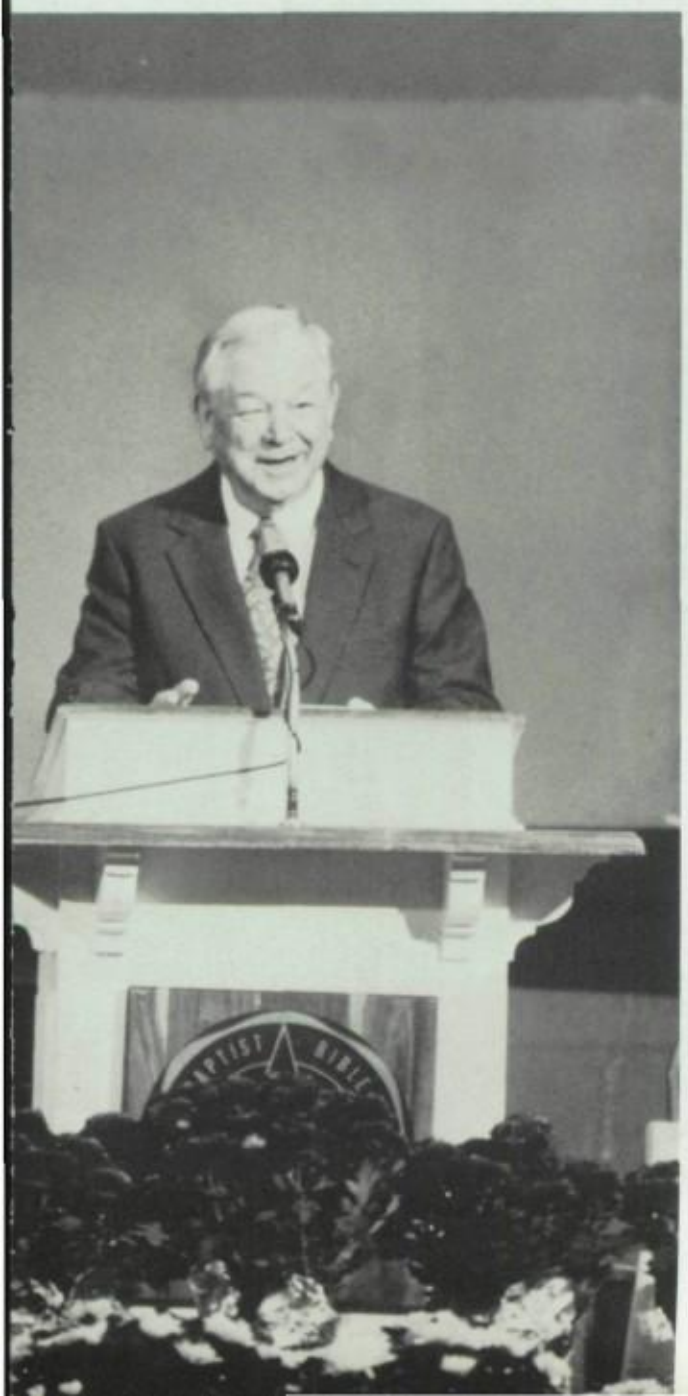
Record Attendance Marks Victorious Harvest Home

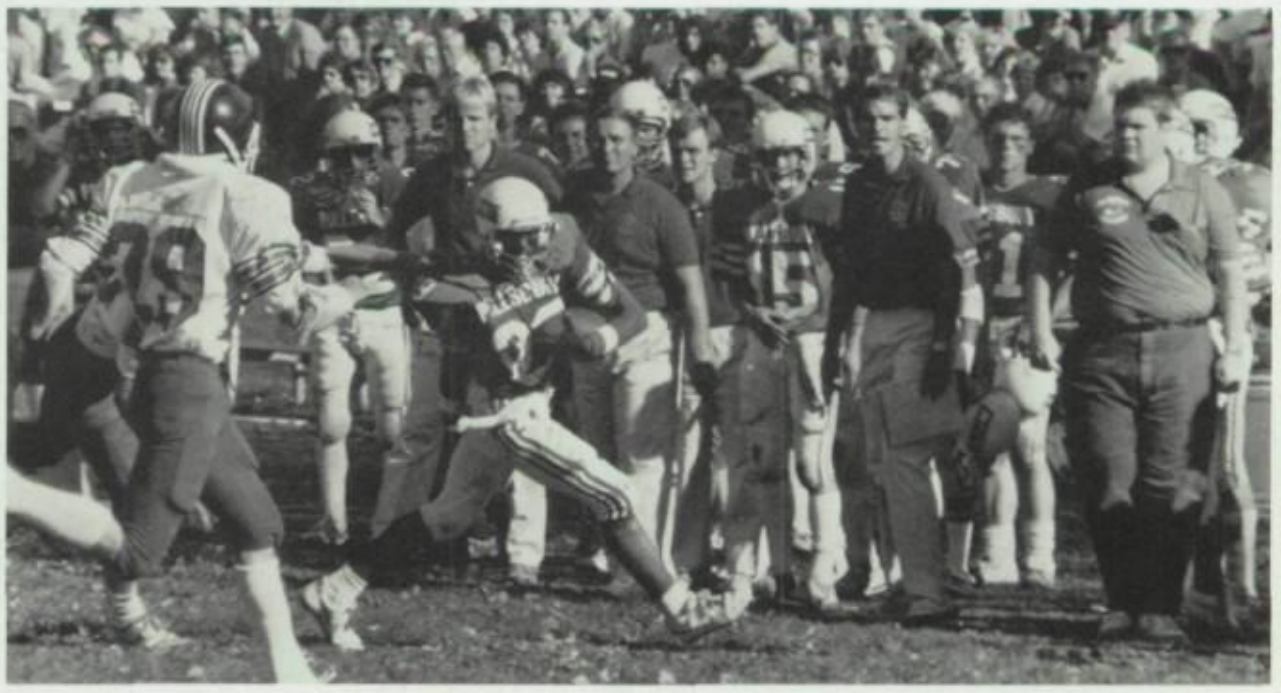
This year's Harvest Home was certainly a busy one. In addition to the normal activities and alumni events, the college hosted an Academy reunion. Through careful planning and the Lord's help, each of the facets of the weekend went smoothly.

For the Thirtieth Anniversay Harvest Home Concerts held on Friday and Saturday nights, our Pillsbury musical groups ministered in song. The Symphonic Wind Ensemble, Handbells, Concert Choir, and Heralds of Song sang and played in the sharp military cadence of the Christian soldier theme. On Friday evening, former president Monroe Parker once again stood behind the Pillsbury pulpit. Saturday evening's guests heard Pastor Dennis Fitzgerald, who had been awarded a citation for his pastoral leadership the night before..

And, of course, Harvest Home just wouldn't be the same without our Homecoming athletic contests. And what great games they were. Under beautiful skys, our Comet athletes defeated their foes on both the soccer field and the gridiron. In the morning, the soccer team shut out Concordia College 3-0. Later in the afternoon, the cheering fans helped the football squad to a 23-13 victory over Northwestern of Wisconsin.

Beautiful weather, crowds of Pillsbury's friends and graduates, sacred music, athletic competition, and preaching from God's Word — just some of the many elements that made this anniversary Harvest Home a memorable one.





Ahoy, mates
We're pirates of the sea!

An exciting year ahead the students all were told,
New functions being planned to break the Comet mold.
Preparations in the works for a fall activity,
The theme that was chosen was "Pirates of the Sea."

The dining atmosphere, a ship creaking in the night,
Seafood on the deck, with twinkling shipboard light.
Student officers were there as the captain and his mates,
While everyone had good times conversing with their dates.

Upon their arrival, some looked a little arty,
But that's all right you see; it was a costume party.
The gym was decorated, a sight to behold,
With cider, pop, and popcorn all to be sold.

There was a little program, each player gave his all;
The pirate at the helm was a tall guy named Paul.
A quartet sang on ship-board, the terror of the seas,
While Christa brought a captain down to his knees.

There were games by the plenty, and pictures shot galore
of the crazy homemade costumes that all the people wore.
We watched at close of evening, a film that gave insight
To God's love for the lost; then Paul bid us all good-night.

Combined Activities Feature Nationally Known Preachers

In October, Pillsbury hosted two events concurrently that exposed the students and visiting guests to three days of Bible preaching. On Monday morning, October 13, Dr. Earle Matteson spoke on "Tongues and the Charismatic Movement." Dr. Matteson was particularly qualified to address this issue, since he had come out of the charismatic movement. For over twenty years he was the pastor of the Beth Eden Baptist Church of Denver. This was the Fourth Annual Biblical Studies Forum.

Later Monday, the Mid-America Baptist Fellowship began their tenth annual meeting on the campus. Pastors and laymen from across the Midwest gathered at Pillsbury for a time of fellowship, seminars, business meetings, and, most importantly, Bible preaching. The "Chosen to Be a Soldier" theme pervaded many of these challenges.

On Wednesday afternoon, Dr. Richard V. Clearwaters and Dr. Monroe Parker discussed some of the spiritual warfare they had waged through the years. These men were honored by the Fellowship with "Soldier of the Cross" awards for their diligent stand. The ladies also enjoyed a luncheon in Pillsbury hall on Wednesday as Mrs. Richard V. Clearwaters challenged the guests, who were hosted by our faculty and staff women.

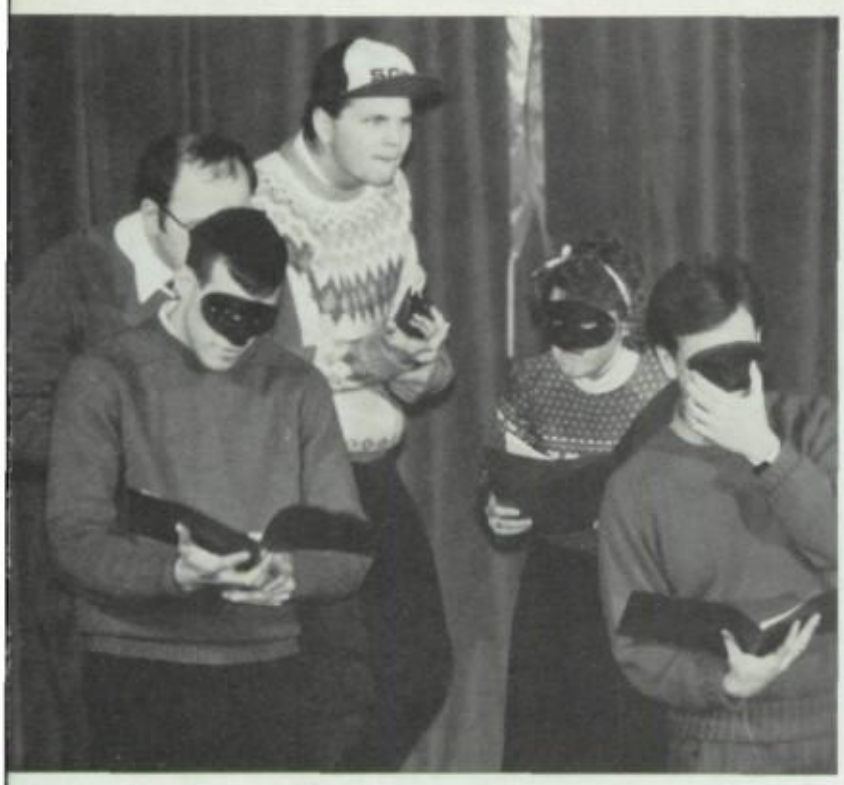
For Such A Time depicted the Biblical story of Esther. The play began with the machinations of the wicked Vashti to regain her position as Queen of Persia after four years spent in exile from the king. Her wiles failed, and Xerxes was urged to seek a new Queen. By God's will Esther was chosen, and the familiar scriptural story began. The play was not only a struggle for the lives of God's chosen people, but also a revelation of the struggle believers often face between the will of God and the things of the world. Mr. Douglas Whitley, chairman of the speech department, wrote and directed For Such A Time.

Christmas Concert Guests Bid Farewell to the Rammels

"The Carols of Christmas" was the theme for this year's musical celebration of the birth of Christ. Each of the Pillsbury music groups paid homage to the Christ child in song. Following the lovely music, a farewell recognition was given for Dr. and Mrs. Rammel. The student body presented the Rammels with a deluxe Minnesota weekend for two. The faculty flew them to Florida for a well-deserved vacation. And the other guests and friends of the college presented a generous cash gift in recognition of the Rammel's many years of faithful service.



Students Share in Christmas Celebration

The student body celebrated Christmas in many ways this year. Besides each class decorating their traditionally assigned areas, other reminders of the Yuletide season sprang up around campus. A new idea was caroling in Central Park. Although this winter was generally known as one of the mildest on record, the night the students braved the elements proved to be an exception. But after donning appropriate apparel, students and faculty formed a long line and headed to the park. There, Dave Shaleen led singing under Owatonna's new Christmas lights. Afterwards everyone returned to the Rammel's home for cocoa and cookies. On another evening, the students had their lighter, "family time" look at Christmas in Kerux before heading home for the holidays.

Graduate Moritz Preaches To Begin 1987

Evangelist Fred Moritz, a 1963 Pillsbury graduate, returned to the pulpit from which he had often been challenged as a student. There have been many improvements at Pillsbury through the decades, but one thing remains unchanged — good Bible preaching. Dr. Moritz, who serves with Baptist World Mission, as well as being an active evangelist, spoke to the students to begin the 1987 year.

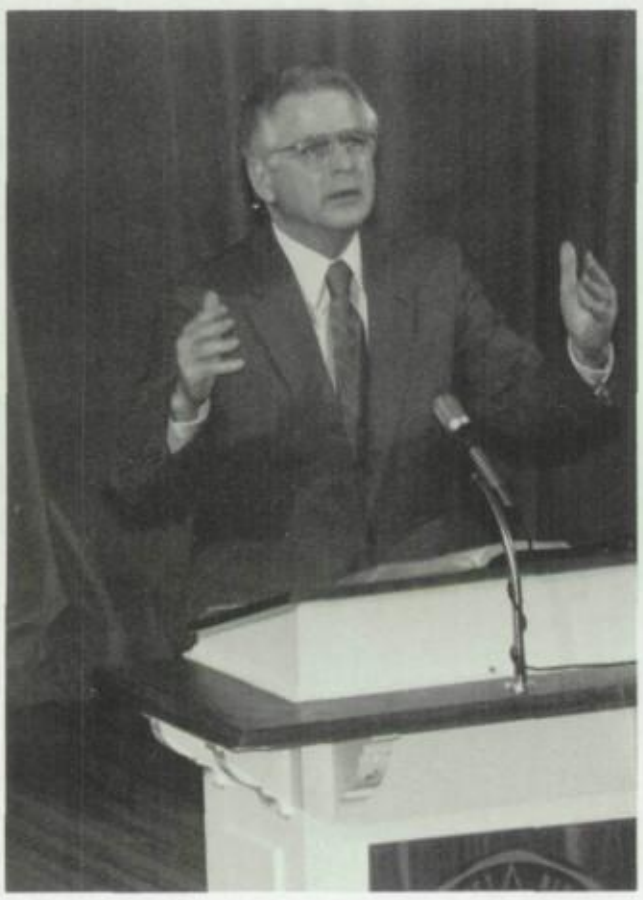
Moonlight on the Sea was the theme for the 1987 Valentine Formal. Following a delicious banquet of Chicken Kiev on wild rice, the Valentine Formal guests retreated to the "Seaside Room" in Pillsbury Hall for photos and fellowship. A sacred concert featuring the vocal artistry of Ray and Ann Gibbs and the coronation of the Valentine Formal Queen was held in Kerux autitorium.

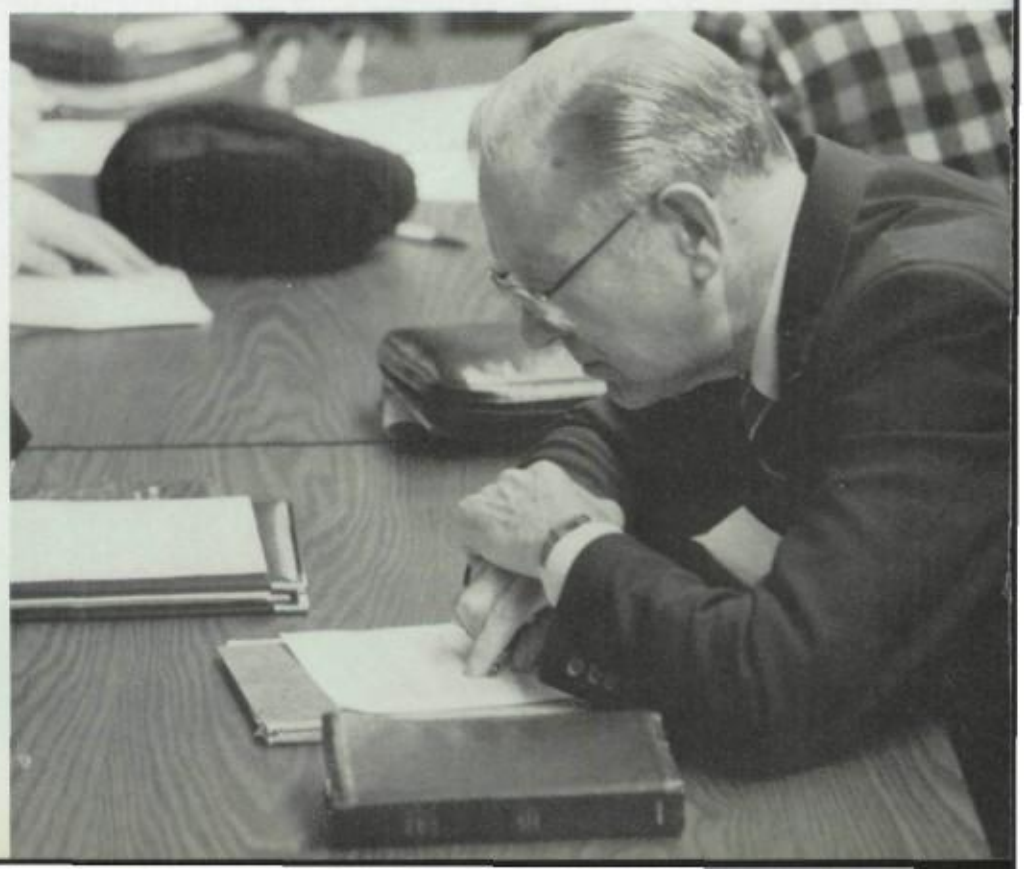
Winterfest 1987: Snow 0, Mud 1

The winter of 1986-87 could be called "the winter that never was." Very little snow and a season of high temperatures was ideal for everything except the traditional Winterfest snow sculptures. A delicious breakfast, a humorous reading by Professor Doug Whitley, and a short challenge by Walt Brock started Friday's activities. Then the students went outside for recreation. Although Winterfest more closely resembled a "mud-fest," everyone had a great time in the sunshine.

Preaching, Pictures and Prayer

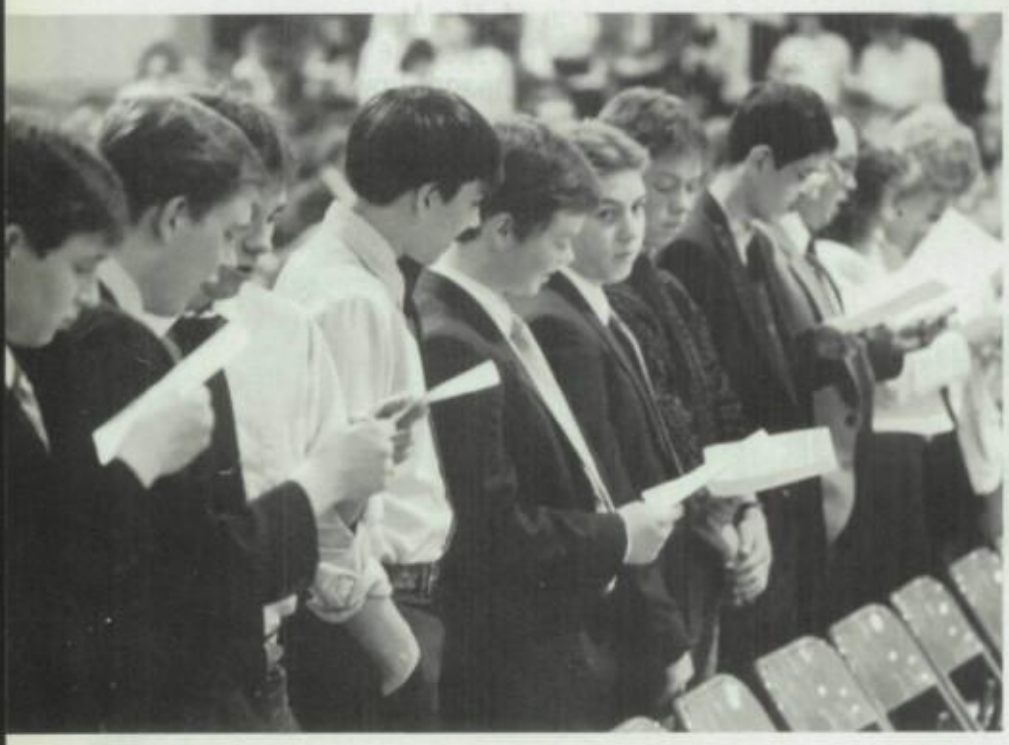
"Jesus Christ . . . the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." The theme for this year's annual missionary conference was taken from I John 2:12. Speakers included three Pillsbury alumni — Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Peterson and Martha Jongewaard. Dr. Billy Martin and Rev. Andrew Barnes also presented missionary challenges. For two days classes were dismissed and students had the opportunity to hear mission sermons and seminars, see slides of foreign fields, and pray for the needs of missionaries worldwide.

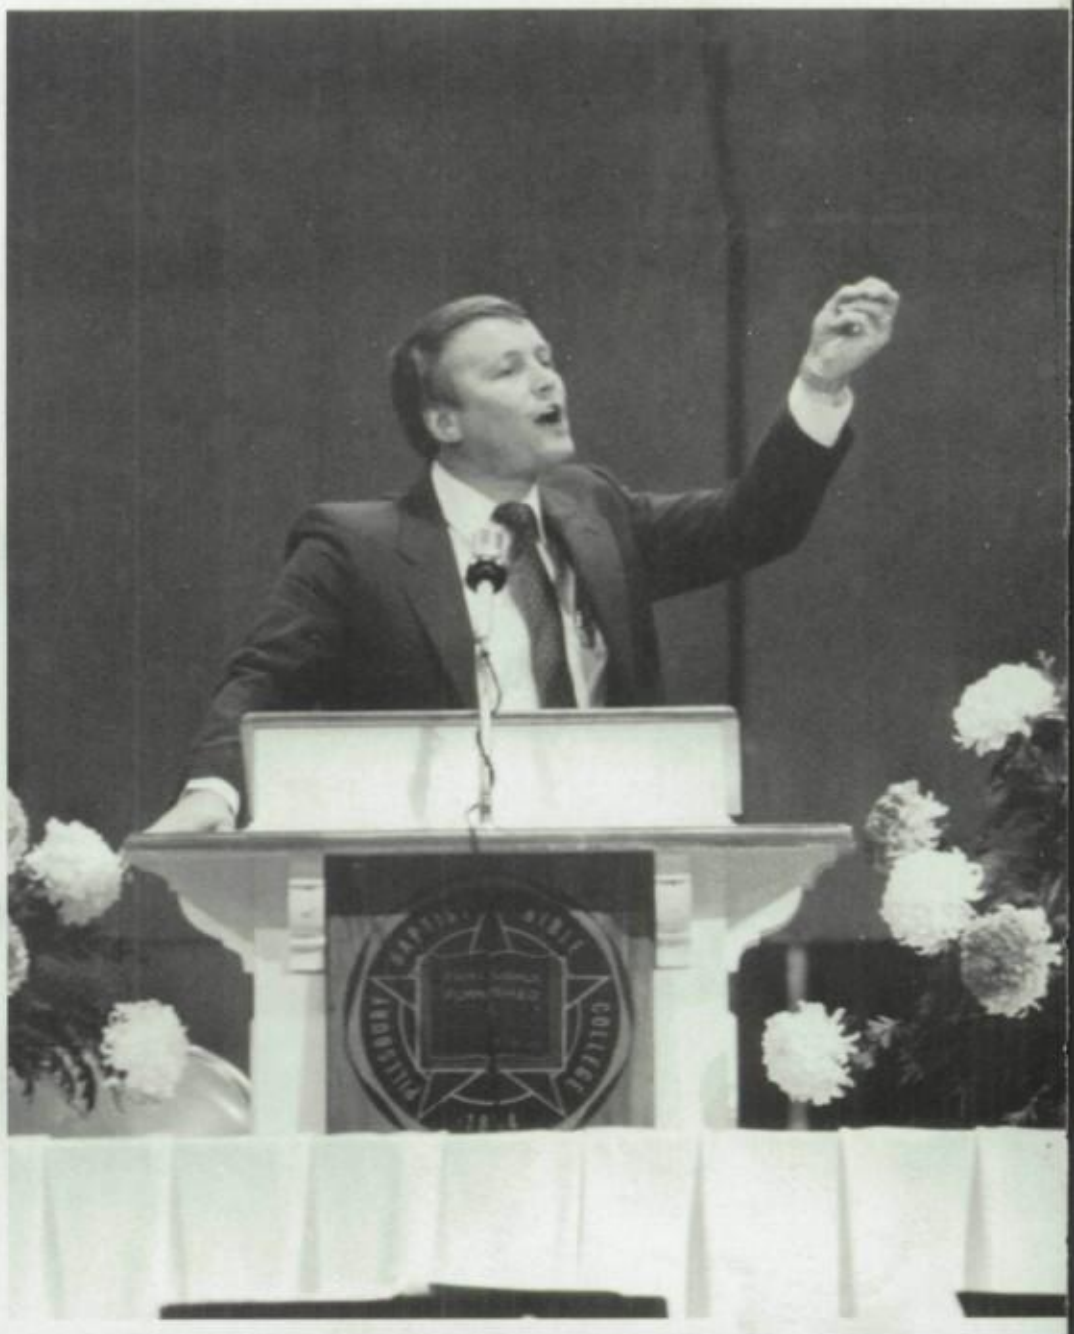




Point Out Worldwide Mission Needs

College Days Crowd Welcomes President Potter





College Days provided the first opportunity for many of our constituency to get acquainted with Dr. Al Potter. He was kept busy preaching Thursday evening after the music concert and for chapel Friday morning. He also spoke to all of the prospective students at a reception in Pillsbury Hall, met with alumni and friends on Friday afternoon, and hosted the farewell breakfast on Saturday morning.

Other College Days activities included a pizza party with skits, the student production of Arsenic and Old Lace, the Friday afternoon fun contests and an evening performance of The Mikado. But of course the emphasis was on prospective students attending classes — seeing firsthand how God's Word is taught in every academic area at Pillsbury.

Oriental Operetta Entertains College Days Guests

For the spring dramatic production, the Pillsbury Players enacted the delightful Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, The Mikado. Set in feudal Japan, the story takes place in the city of Titipu. There are many twists of plot set amidst memorable musical numbers. Will Nanki-Poo be able to marry his beloved Yum-Yum? Not until he escapes the pursuing Katisha. What of Yum-Yum's betrothal to Ko-Ko, the Lord High Executioner? Soon the Mikado will be visiting. The proud and corrupt Pooh-Bah has a plan, but it also backfires. In the end, all is well and the entire cast sings the curtain closed.

Students Produce Dramatic Comedy

Maria Moschovis and Dan Jensen transformed the second floor of Pillsbury Hall into a makeshift theater to present their rendition of the classic, Arsenic and Old Lace. One of the goals of the dramatic productions class is to simulate conditions that might be found in a smaller local church or Christian school. The students directed the play, and prepared the sets and costumes. The play was performed several times during and after the College Days weekend in April.

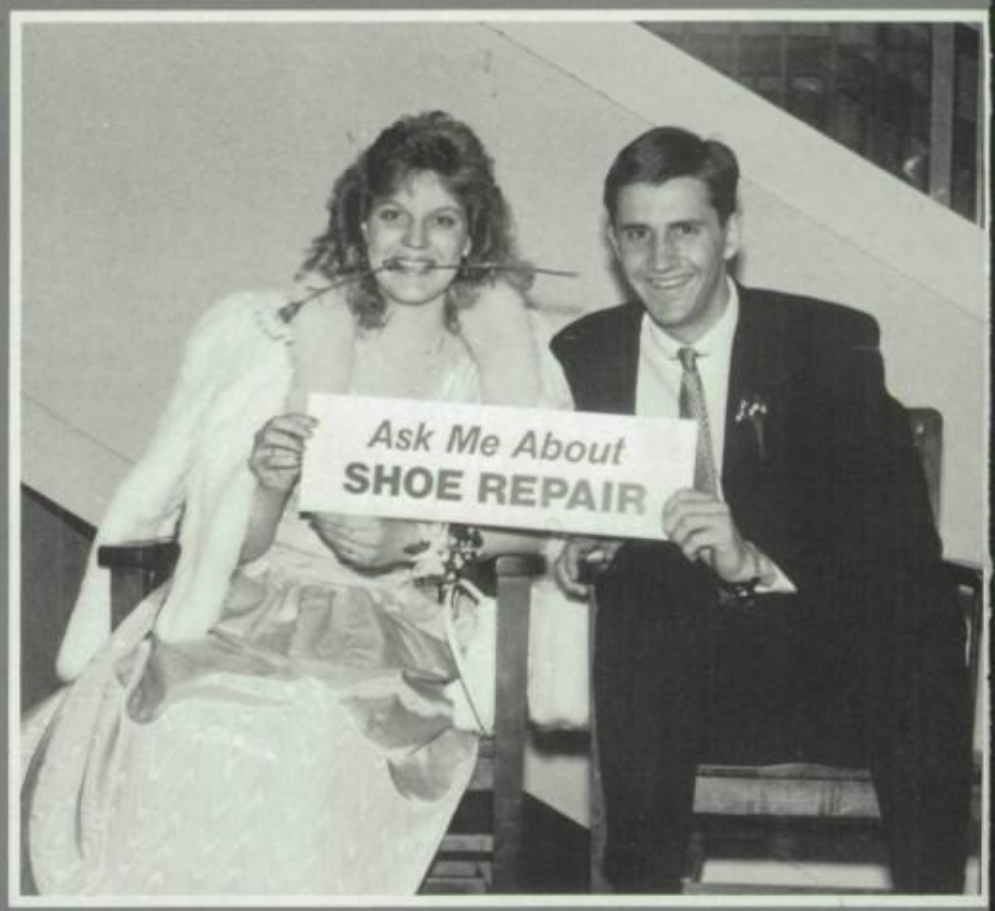
Junior-Senior Banquet



Goes To The Ritz

The Sheraton Ritz Hotel in Minneapolis was the scene for the 1987 Junior-Senior Banquet. After sipping punch on the Palm Terrace, guests enjoyed Fettuccini con Pesta with the trimmings. Special music was provided by a male quartet comprised of Jay Elmquist, Steve Nichols, Dave Shaleen, and Tim Oynes. Mr. Joe Schmidt of Detroit Lakes was the speaker for the evening. Kevin Zakariasen, a recent graduate, served as emcee. The juniors prophecied where the seniors would one day be, and the seniors willed some of their finer characteristics to their successors. Each year the faculty selects the "senior personalities" to be placed in the yearbook and this year's recipients were announced at the banquet.

Graduating Seniors Fellowship With Faculty

The Faculty-Senior Breakfast is one final time when the graduates can get together with their professors before they leave the campus for their various ministries. It is usually a fun-filled time of reminiscing about the four (or more) years they have enjoyed together at the college. This year's program featured a quiz show in which three seniors compared their answers to various questions with averages gained by polling all of the seniors. How many times have you been to the library? To the dating parlor? To the Dipper? The results were somewhat predictable, but quite humorous. The Lydas hosted the game show. Dr. Dell Johnson gave a challenge from God's Word emphasizing that the "fear of man is a snare." Mr. Don Scovill sang a special number and Pastor David Grotzke inducted the class of 1987 into the Alumni Association. Finally, Dr. Al Potter, although he admitted that he had played little part in the education of the seniors, closed with encouraging remarks about Pillsbury's future and the part the seniors could continue to play in supporting their alma mater.

Dr. Alan Potter Becomes Fifth P.B.B.C. President

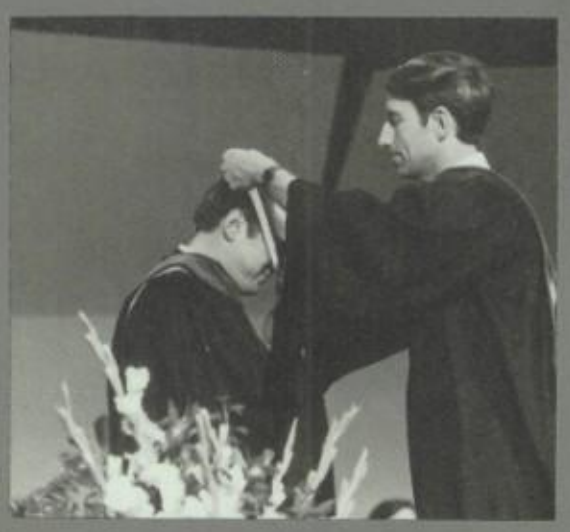
On Thursday evening, May 7, 1987, at the conclusion of the Baccalaureate service, Dr. Alan Potter was inaugurated as Pillsbury's fifth president. He was also the first Pillsbury graduate to hold the office.

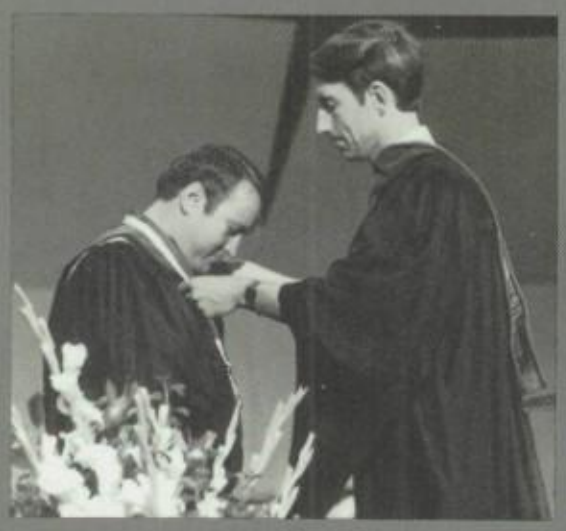
Dr. Creig Lobdell, representing Bob Jones University, Dr. Larry Pettegrew from Central Baptist Theological Seminary, Dr. Arno Weniger from Maranatha Baptist Bible College, and Dr. E. Robert Jordan from the Calvary Baptist Theological Seminary were all on hand and offered congratulatory remarks to our new president. Other dignitaries, including the mayor of Owatonna, board of trustee members, Dr. Potter's friends and relatives, and other friends of the college were present for this historic service.

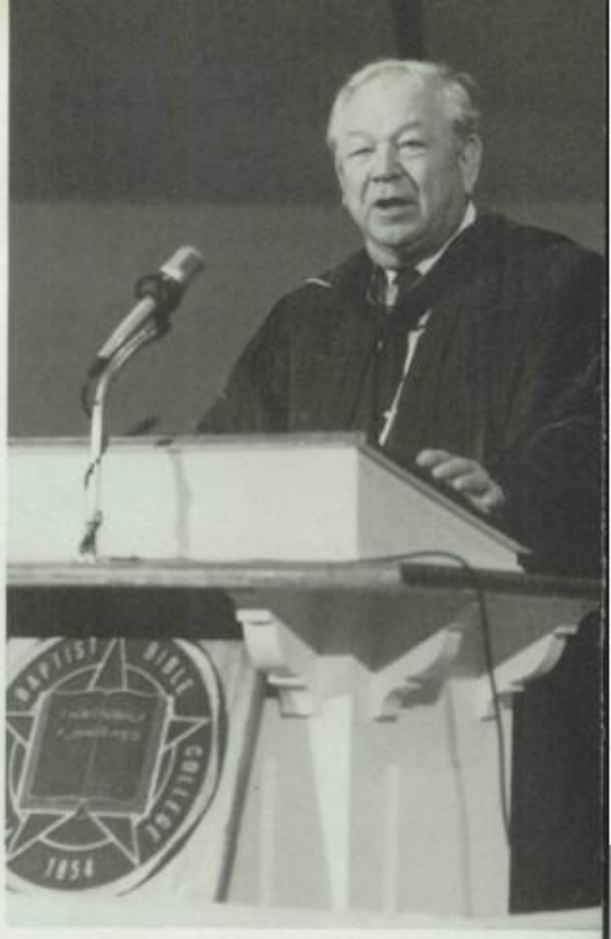
Dr. Potter also recognized Pastor Don Odens, who had served as the Acting Administrator from January to mid-April of 1987, with a plaque and a check from the board for his service during the transition between presidents.

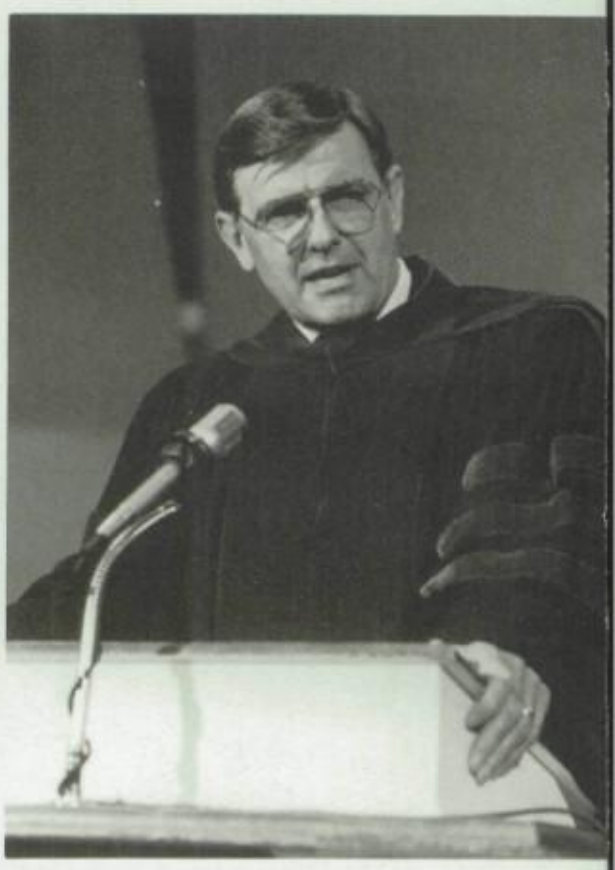
Dr. Potter then had some remarks emphasizing each part of the "Pillsbury Baptist Bible College" name. He said that under his administration Pillsbury was going to continue to be Baptist, Bible-centered, and offer an excellent college-level program.

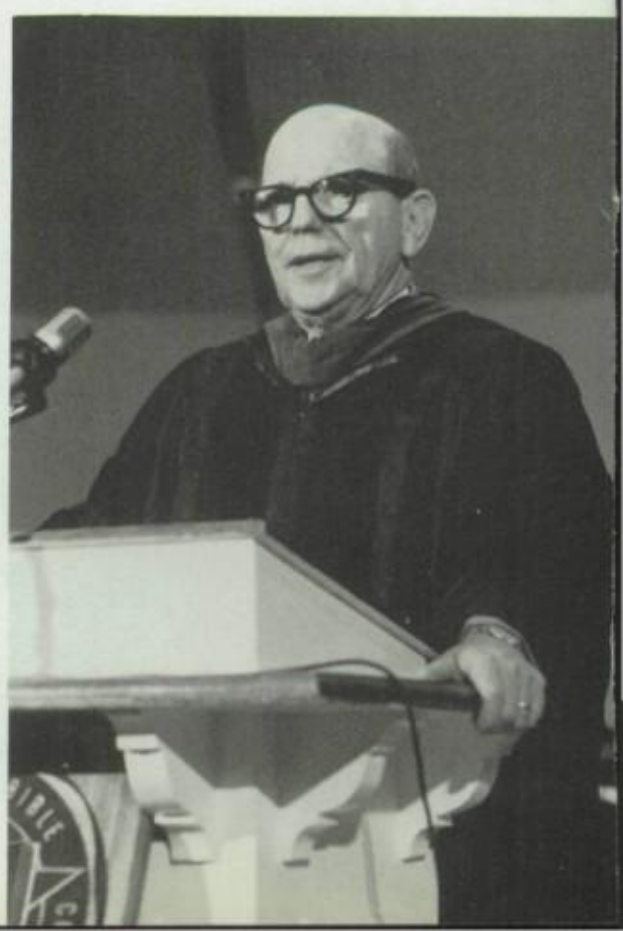
Following the formal ceremony in the gymnasium, where Dr. Potter was presented with a presidential medallion, a lovely reception was held in Pillsbury Hall, hosted by some of our college ladies. There Dr. Potter was able to greet the many guests who welcomed him to his new ministry.



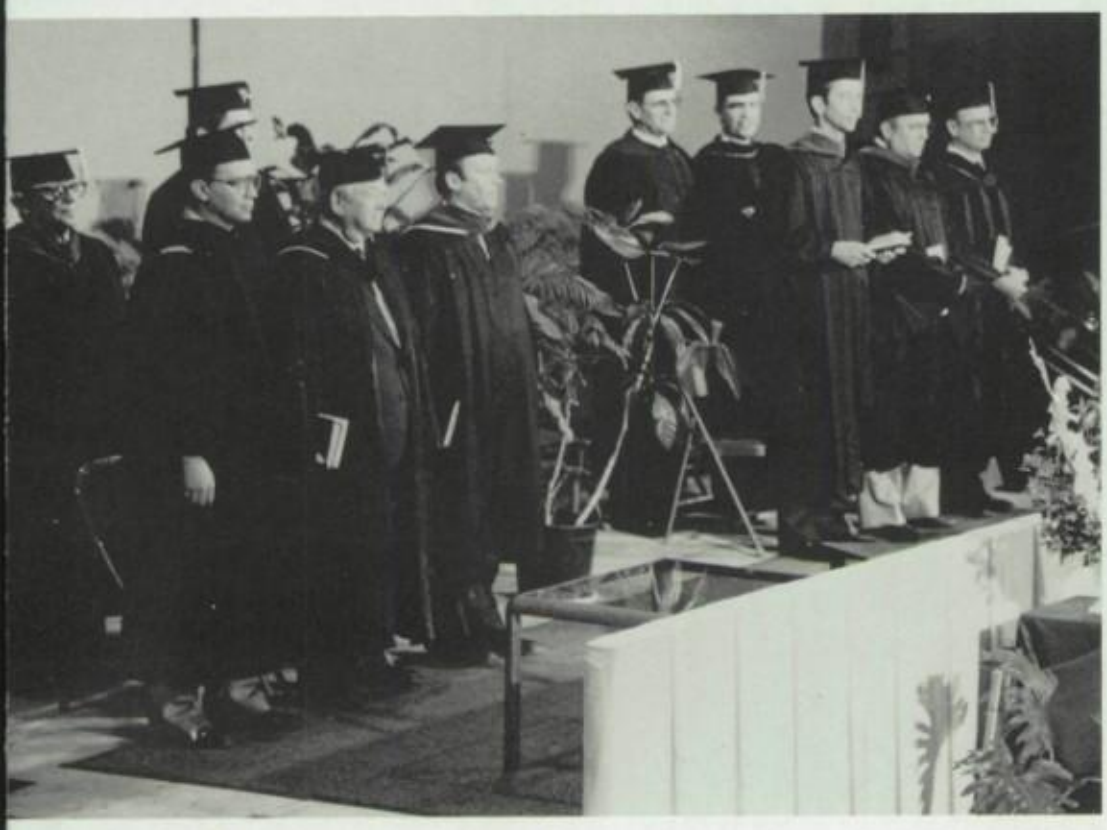








Thirtieth Annual Commencement . . .



. . . Sends Trained Soldiers Into Battle

The smartly uniformed color guard that traditionally begins each processional line seemed particularly appropriate this year considering our military theme. The Thirtieth Annual Commencement exercise provided a time for looking ahead and reflecting on the past. Looking ahead, as 76 graduates entered the battlefield as well-trained Christian soldiers equipped for spiritual battle. Looking ahead as Dr. Alan Potter began his ministry as Pillsbury's fifth president. And looking back at thirty years of Pillsbury history.

Dr. Monroe Parker was a fitting choice for this year's baccalaureate speaker. As Pillsbury's first resident president, he told the graduates to "Forward March!" He also was able to recount Pillsbury's history during a time of retrospect on Friday morning.

During Baccalaureate, the "Nehemiah Project" was instituted to raise funds for needed items. Following the Thursday evening Baccalaureate sermon, Dr. Alan Potter was formally inaugurated as Pillsbury's new President.

On Friday morning, Dr. Potter brought the Commencement address. Centering the graduate's attention on the person of Jesus Christ whom they must serve, his message was entitled, "Christ, the Only Essential Relationship." Following his message, he had to quickly leave to speak that evening at the Calvary Baptist Theological Seminary in Lansdale, Pennsylvania where he would be awarded the honorary Doctor of Divinity degree.

Rev. Donald Odens presided over the rest of the service. He told of his excitement over the prospects for the college in the years ahead.

Following the conferring of degrees, 12 scholarships were awarded to worthy students. New this year were the PHT degrees. These were awarded by the Dorothy Sanford society to the wives of graduating seniors for "Putting Hubby Through." Mr. Sam Telloyan and Mrs. Lillian Cundiff were recognized for twenty years of service to the college. Mrs. Cundiff retired this year after working faithfully for so many years in the financial office. Mr. Tom Lawson, Mr. Randy Miller, and Miss Sherry Segal received ten year service awards. Junior Dave Shaleen was the winner of the student preaching event.

The Senior class president passed the sword to the Junior class president. By his acceptance of the sword, the next class vowed to preserve the dedication to God's Word that has symbolized Pillsbury Baptist Bible College for thirty years.

Kelly Hall was built in 1892. It was originally known as the conservatory and served as a music building. In 1939, the original Kelly Hall was destroyed by fire and so this building was renamed Kelly Senior Hall and became a dormitory. It was also a gift from George A. Pillsbury and is now used again for music instruction.

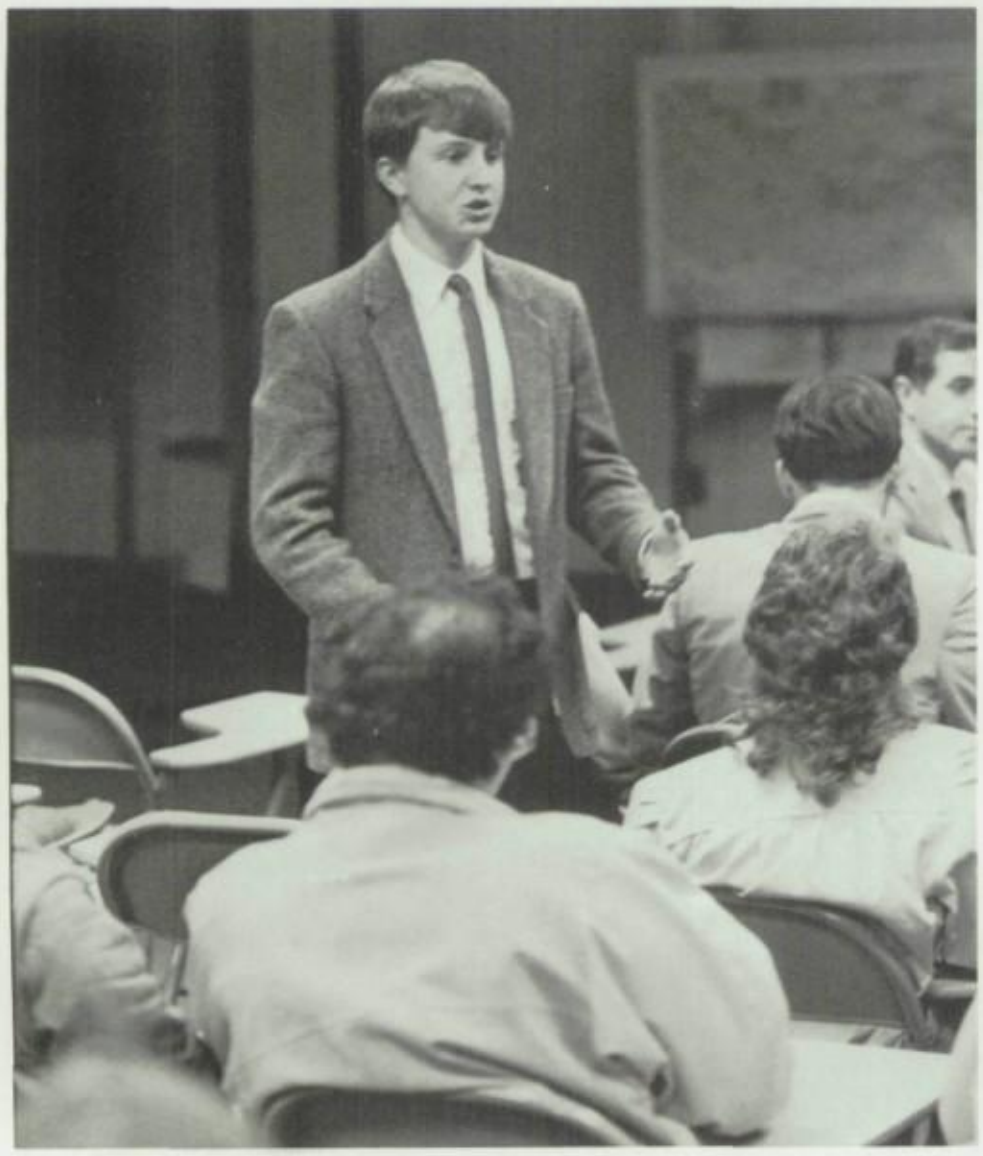
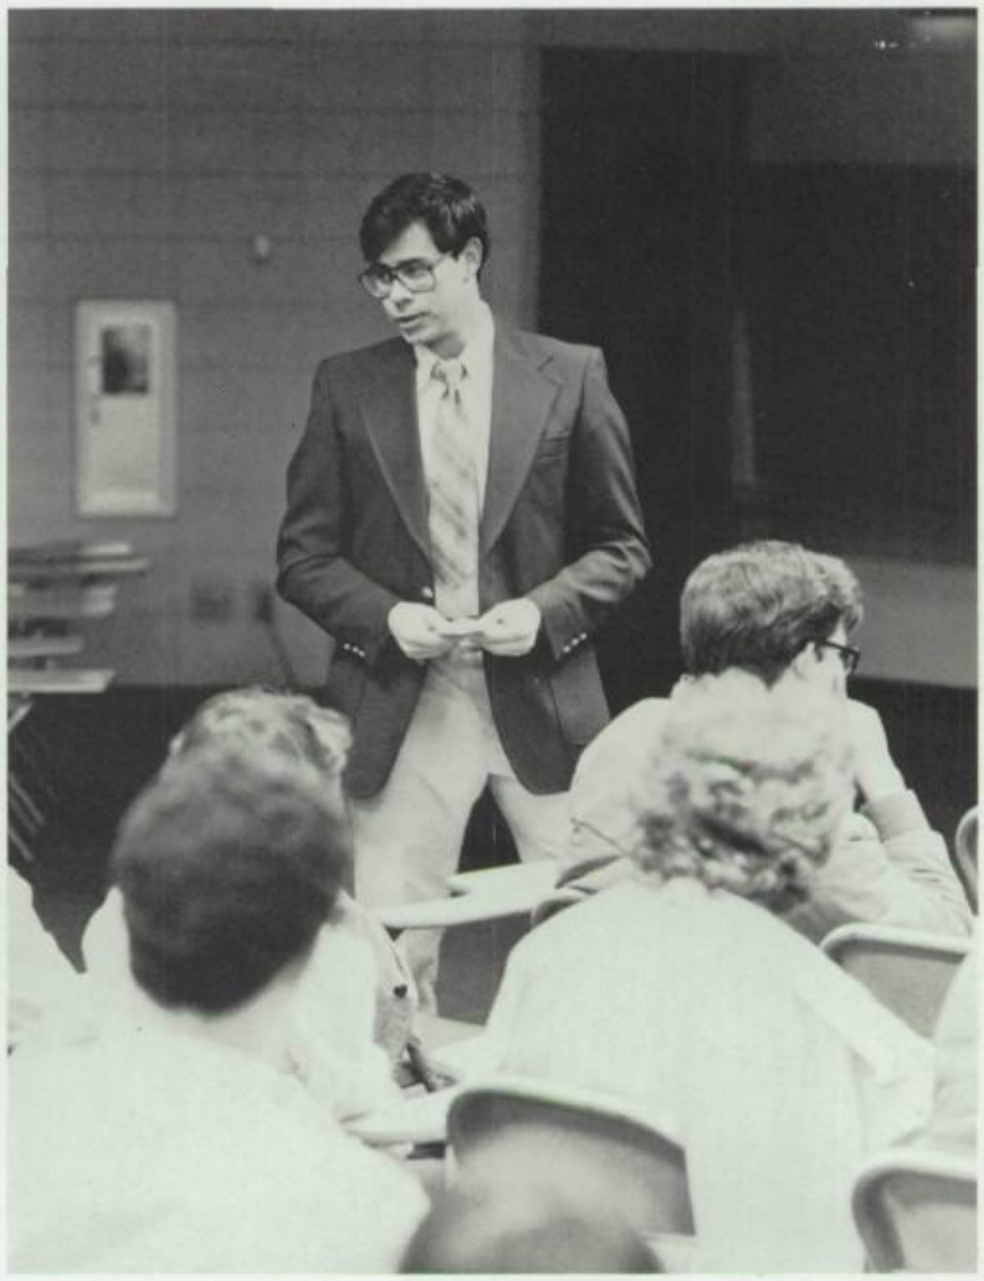
Extension Places Spiritual Trainees On the Battlefield

In the military, soldiers prepare for battle by extensive training in the field. In much the same way, permanent extension assignments prepare Pillsbury students for their life long ministries. Each weekend the campus empties as young people travel to nearby local churches. Serving in preaching, teaching, and music, our students gain valuable experience. This year's Northern Light is dedicated to the churches of the Minnesota Baptist Association. Many of these churches assist the college in providing "basic training" for the future soldiers.

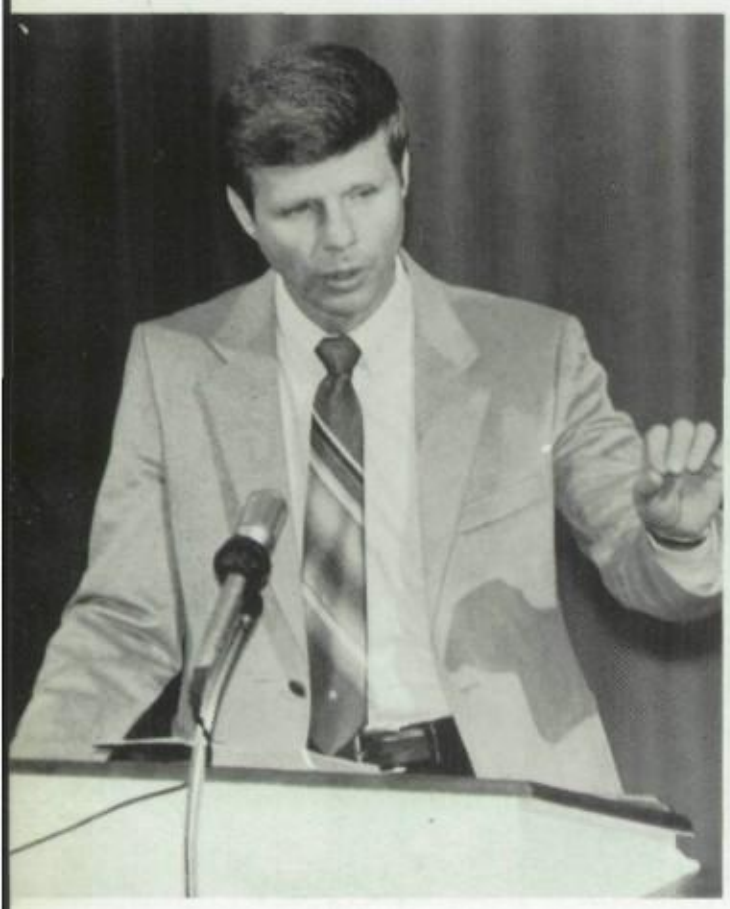
Consistent Daily Prayer Is Mission Band's Hallmark





SEATED: Mr. Sam Telloyan, Prayer Band Coordinator and President of the North American Prayer Band; Dave Dillon, President of the Far East Prayer Band. STANDING: John Batchelor, President of the Latin American Prayer Band; Richard Rose, President of the African Prayer Band; Peter Schissel, President of the European Prayer Band.

Each weeknight, the Missionary Prayer Bands meet in Pillsbury Hall to remember the needs of laborers around the world. The globe has been divided into five major geographical areas and each is remembered on a specific night. Prayer bands also give some of our young men the opportunity to learn leadership skills as they organize the band and print the prayer requests that arrive from the fields. Twice each year, missionary rallies provide a special emphasis for those interested in the work of God's harvest field. This fall, Clifford Maddy, a 1963 Pillsbury graduate who is a missionary appointee to England, was the rally speaker. In the spring, Norm Nicklas, a former missionary to Brazil, was the keynote speaker. He showed a film of his former field of Sao Paulo, Brazil and spoke concerning his current work as the U.S.A. director for A.B.W.E., directing home missions in America. In the spring rally, each of the prayer band presidents share specific answers to prayer that they have seen through the year.



Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.
II Timothy 2:1-3

Comet Putters Rank Second In UMCC Conference

KNEELING: Dave Nyquist, Steve Magnuson, Tim Graham. STANDING: Coach Ed Cunningham, David Hendricksen, Chris Ostrom.

The Comet golfers had another great season with six wins and three losses. They also placed second in the Upper Midwest Collegiate Conference tournament. The Comets were the only team to have the distinction of having two golfers named to the all-conference team for two years in a row. These honors went to senior Dave Nyquist and freshman standout Chris Ostrom. The Conference tournament was held in Lacrosse, Wisconsin, this year. The golfers upset Concordia, who had provided two of the year's three losses, when they played in the tournament. Head Coach Ed Cunningham was able to round up several assistants, including John Wheeler, Dale Goode, Pastor Everett Holmes, and Mr. Robert Eiseman. Each spring the Comet golfers also participate in the Winona State Spring Golf Tournament. Competition in this match is tough, as sixteen of the best Division I and II teams from three states vie for honors.

During the third year under Coach Larry Courtney, the 1986 football Comets surged ahead in the Upper Midwest Collegiate Conference. A defeat in their final game against Concordia of St. Paul on a bitterly cold November day was all that kept the Comets from the Conference championship. Overall, the team had a 6-3 record, the best in Pillsbury history. Buoyed by exciting special team play the young team finished first statistically in both offense and defense. Mark Young's record-setting field goal seemed to characterize the Comet's ability throughout the season to be in the right place at the right time. Five Pillsbury gridders were named to the first team of the UMCC, the largest roster from any of the member colleges. Victories occurred off the field as well. Under the direction of assistant coach, Dwight Allen, a football gospel team ministered to several upper-Midwest churches through testimony and song.

Soccer Team Advances To NCCAA Nationals In PA

The Comet soccer team traveled to Lancaster, Pennsylvania, for the NCCAA National Tournament this year. In a close 1-0 game, they came in second place in the tournament. The Comets were invited in at-large bid to participate in the national tournament, after losing to Maranatha in the District IV tournament. Overall for the season, the team was 16-5-1, with a 7-2-1 Upper Midwest record. Coach Norm Brown was assisted by Mr. Doug Whitley. John Telloyan, Dan Jensen, and Keith Rock were named to the UMC All-Conference first team. Keith Rock, Dan Jensen, Jon High and Jeff Rainear were on the NCCAA District IV team. In all, this year's season was one that started strong and "pressed toward the mark."

The Pillsbury grapplers did an excellent job this year, finishing with a 16-2 dual record. This year's record matches the best season in Pillsbury's history. The Comets were also conference champions, with a record seven champions among the ten weight classes. One highlight of the year was winning the Maranatha Invitational Tournament with five Pillsbury champions. The most memorable events of the 1987 season occurred during the last half of the season. Three highlights of the year include a near no-hitter pitched by Brian Poe and Mark Young against Saint Paul Bible College, a dramatic come-from-behind win over Mt. Senario College, and the best game of the season — a see-saw battle against conference champion Northwestern that the Eagles finally won in extra innings.

Comette Spikers Shoot Toward Near Even Record

Coach Wayne Deckert worked with a young team this year as they made their way to a 5-6-1 record. The women's volleyball team won eight games and lost six in the NBCAA tourney. This was accomplished by playing a totally new system with five sophomores and two freshmen in the game a majority of the time. The Comettes defeated Faith for the first time in several years and also defeated the University of Minnesota, Waseca.

Women's Basketball Team Shows Comet Determination

The 1986-87 women's basketball team completed the season with a 1-8 record. Optimism was high at the beginning of the season with six returning letterwinners, three of them starters. Though the team was unable to turn that optimism into victories, that optimism was always present. The team did not improve enough to become competitive, but individual improvement was evident. The team worked hard, tried hard and gave their best. Though there were few team highlights, two team members were given honors. Traci Poe and Nancy Ward were selected to the National Christian College Division II All-District Team.

PERSONNEL

Jefts Hall first opened in 1911 as the Academy's dining hall and kitchen. It served this purpose even after the Bible College began. But with the renovation of Koinonia Hall, Jefts became the college library. In 1972, the building was completely remodeled. A hole was cut in the main floor for a wide, descending stairway and the basement became a very usable part of the building. The third floor of this building houses the College Archives.

Soldiers Pleasing to the Lord

II Timothy 2:4 reads, "No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier." From this verse was taken our theme for the year, Chosen to be a Soldier.

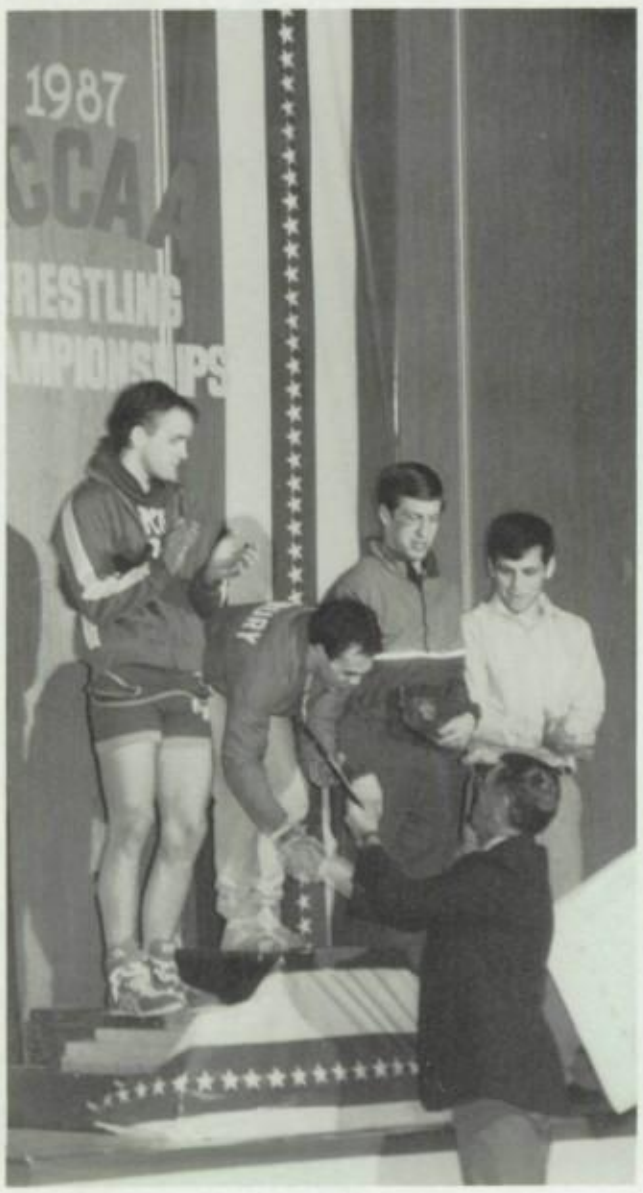
What does this verse mean to us as believers? Paul was living in a very militaristic state. His readers were continually reminded of the Roman presence through armed soldiers patrolling the land.

As they looked at the soldiers, they could obviously see a devotion to duty and a loyalty to Rome. These men would leave their families and normal pursuits to serve their country. What is our level of devotion to our heavenly Commander-in-Chief?

The Lord of Lords, and King of Kings, has chosen us to be His soldiers. We are a select group. Unless we fight the spiritual battles here on earth, no one will. Pillsbury has been equipping spiritual soldiers for battle for three decades.

Are we making an impact in the fight against Satan and his forces? Have we pleased Him who has chosen us to be a soldier? Let's keep on fighting the fight until the day the trumpet sound calls God's troops home.



CHOSEN TO BE A SOLDIER

II Tim. 2:4

Donald G. Scovill

1. Chosen to be a soldier marching forth in Jesus name,
2. Chosen to sow the Word of God and reap the souls of men,
Chosen to be a soldier as the truth we now pro- claim;
Chosen to sound the warning that He's com- ing soon a- gain;
Chosen to be a soldier holding high His Holy Word,
Chosen to stand un-flinching, strong a- gainst the evil world.
I've been chosen to be a soldier of the Lord, the Lord.

In Memory

Greg A. Johnson

Greg Alan Johnson, a 19 year old sophomore from St. Ansgar, Iowa, was taken home to be with the Lord on Tuesday, June 2, 1987. He was electrocuted in a construction accident near Rochester, Minnesota. Although the accident happened after school had let out, many of our Pillsbury faculty and students received word of Greg's death and attended the funeral service.

Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.
